After I attend graduate school at Columbia SIPA and obtain a Master's in Public Administration, I will start my career in diplomacy and spend a minimum of 5 years as a Foreign Service Officer. I look forward to serving in Washington, DC, and at a U.S. embassy, consulate, or diplomatic mission around the globe!

The start of medical school has been so exciting—moving to a brand-new city, meeting lots of my supportive classmates, and receiving my white coat! The first couple weeks have been academically challenging, but every time I enter the anatomy lab, I am reminded of why I want to be a doctor.
